

everyday 2009 life

Join Simply Scrapbooks in this creative endeavor to capture 1 photo per day in 2009.

Our motto for 2009 at Simply Scrapbooks is to “Do Something Creative Everyday!”

Please don't let this be intimidating. If you miss a day, NO BIG DEAL! The purpose of this project is to capture everyday life in 2009. Some days you might have perfect pictures to capture and other days you might just be looking for something to take a picture of to get it done! That's okay! At the end of the year, you will have close to 365 pictures (and I say close to because certainly we will miss a day!) and 52 layouts (don't freak out yet!, I am going to show you how I plan to CHEAT!) done. What an accomplishment!

I wish I would have began this project a week ago so I could have offered you a glimpse about what my project will look like, but I didn't so you will just have to trust me on this OR follow your vision!

I have started a mini notebook (not even decorated YET!) and kept track of what picture I took and jotted down a few quick thoughts on why I took the picture. Every week I should have 7 pictures to scrapbook. I am not going to use my traditional method of scrapbooking NOR IS THIS TAKING THE PLACE OF MY TRADITIONAL SCRAPBOOKING, I am going to use a 12x12 We R Memory Keepers Linen 3 Ring Album (we have post bound also!) and divided 4 x6 photo sleeves. Get it? I am going to slip in the photos in the photo sleeves and just scrapbook a few 4x6 rectangles with the date, journaling and embellishments and my weekly layout will be finished. Did I just hear you say you would love to do this but you haven't taken a photo everyday this year? NO problem, either go back and take the photos for the past week, or just start NOW and forget it is already January 4th!

I want to be held accountable. Anyone joining me? Email me (terri@simplyscrapbooksok.com) and let me know! Trust me, you will not want to miss out on this creative endeavor!
